OLAF Director General Mr. Giovanni KESSLER welcomed by Mr Péter POLT Prosecutor General of Hungary in his Office today

Today Mr. Péter Polt, Prosecutor General of Hungary welcomed in his Office Mr. Giovanni Kessler, OLAF Director General on the occasion of Mr. Kessler's official visit in Hungary.

The parties exchanged information on the status of pending cases and discussed required measures and information flows in certain matters. During the meeting OLAF also handed over the results of some important cases.

During the meeting the Parties mutually concluded that cooperation between OLAF and the Hungarian Prosecution Service is excellent, which has already produced numerous results.

The European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF) is the European Union's administrative investigation service entitled to carry out administrative investigations. In addition, it may assist Member States' authorities, contribute to the administrative inquiries or coordinate multi-country cases.

At the finalization of its cases OLAF can make Financial Recommendations in relation to the EU Budget aspects of its cases.

In addition, in cases where an administrative investigation reveals a suspicion of crime in breach of the national criminal code, OLAF shall submit its final report to the Prosecution Service or shall provide information and report the suspicion of crime recommending follow-up actions.
